

JENNA ADELE HIMELSTEIN

Aspiring for the high and honorable position of Chapter Morah

Recruitment

- personally contact all potential new members to make sure they feel important and help them understand that BBYO is something that they will LOVE and should give a try
- give a reward when members get a new recruit
- set chapter benchmarks
- speak to the families of prospective members to get them interested

Retention

- continue involving older members in chapter programs
 - contact less involved members
- get together for dinner at least once month (like Chipotle or Panda)
- have more programs that involve leadership opportunities for other members
- work with the Mazkirah to make sure everyone is informed of our upcoming events and programs
- send out monthly newsletters to members and parents with our chapter and regional events

Re-education

- make new members feel included by explaining BBYO and BBG traditions, structure, and organization
- try to incorporate one chapter Shabbat each month where we can come together to enjoy one another and Judaism

My Sister B'nai B'rith Girls, BBYO is a place for all Jewish teens to feel like they belong and connect to their faith and those surrounding them. I love each and every single one of you and feel that B'Yachad is my home. I would be honored to be able to bring other girls in and help them feel connected and share these amazing experiences that all of us already have! As your Morah, I would love to help expand the chapter. I envision higher

Qualifications

- In House of Reps at CHS
- Do Something Club at CHS (philanthropy)
- Reliable, Organized, Dedicated

Events Attended

- Chapter Elections '17
- Spring Convention '17
- AIT/MIT '17
- MIT sleepover '17
- Spirit '17
- Chapter sleepover '17
- Drew Corson Bball Tourney '17
- Regionals '18

membership, more programming, and giving Judaism a larger role in our chapter events. We can grow so much bigger and achieve much greater! From the wise words of JFK, "If not us, who? If not now, when?"

Truly submitted with undying love for fashion, all things chocolate, my pink hat, my dogs, KIO #27, and each and every single B'Yachad Bee,

I forever remain Jenna Adele Himelstein

I want to continue to strengthen the bonds we have already created with each other. I want our chapter to maintain and strengthen our sisterhood. As a board member I want to foster the culture of openness and inclusivity; an open-door policy between all bees.
