REGIONAL CONVENTION TIME LINE

My Brother Alephs,

THERE'S NO "I" IN TEAM

Goals & Ideas

- 🪦 Work closely with my counterpart as well as the Chapter Godol throughout the entire Regional Convention planning process
- 🪦 Start working on both song and cheer as soon as the theme for Regional Convention 2010
- 🪦 Hold two-three sleepover practices before the week of Regional Convention, as well as practices that are only an hour or two long
 - This will help to lower the stress level of our chapter during the week of Regional Convention
- 🪦 Make sure that practices and sleepovers are run smoothly and a chaos free
- 🪦 Create team captains that are in charge of what the team will wear, when and where they will practice, and who is doing what in the game
- 🪦 Have committees to help plan song, cheer, and talent show
 - These committees will be chosen in September in order to get a head start planning Regional Convention

- 🪦 Balance winning Regional Convention 2010 with hard work, dedication and creating chapter unity and brotherhood
- 🪦 Work with the Chapter Gizbor to lower the cost of Regional Convention as much as possible

- 🪦 Work with the Chapter Sopherim to create fantastic spirit wear for Regional Convention that will be sure to wow everyone, including the judges
 - 🪦 It is imperative to our success at Regional Convention that everything is organized and planned before Regional Convention; we need to be structured
- This includes:
1. Driving: Creating a driving schedule for all of Regional Convention
 2. Communication: Everyone should have their phone on at all times during Regional Convention and a phone call list so everyone can stay in touch

Through my own experience, I understand that Regional Convention is a time where anything can happen; it is just like Michigan's weather. One second you can be flowing with energy and excitement, and the next moment you could be dead tired and upset. As Regional Convention Coordinator, I will make sure that RC is as stress free as possible. By starting earlier in the programming year, and practicing for all of the competitions over a longer period of time, I know that anything will be possible. Working together with my counterpart, the Chpater Godol, and all of the members of Max Fisher AZA #337, let me help you make Regional Convention 2010 one you'll remember for a lifetime.

With undying love for Max Fisher AZA #337 and the beastly Tony the Tiger, I remain Aleph Joshua Blake Morof.

Josh Morof
