

The Road to Success

Amanda Lauren Zivley

Candidate for your Spring 2016 N'siah

My sister B'nai B'rith Girls,

i, amanda lauren zivley am honored, excited, and ready to be running for your spring 2016 n'siah. i want to help our chapter reach new heights, surpass our goals, and accomplish great new things. by leading the executive board and assisting them with their tasks, our chapter will be the best anyone has ever seen. i will keep in close contact with our newly elected board by sending out weekly emails and having 3 formal board meetings this term. i promise to work hard to meet all of my goals, and assist the board in meeting theirs.

respectfully submitted with undying love for, CLTC 4 2014, ILTC 2015, road trips, and every bee in 63, i remain,

Amanda Lauren Zivley

a proud candidate for your spring 2016 chapter n'siah

Goals and Ideas

- host 3 executive board meetings, send weekly board emails to help board members stay on the right track
- work with the s'ganit to plan unique, multifold, 3rd degree programs that keep members active and engaged
- work with the mit moms to incorporate sisterhood in 63
- ensure 63 is full of spirit by working with the 2nd vices
- work with the sh'licha to ensure we incorporate judaism into our chapter and frequently do community service
- assist the mazkirah in finding the best way for 63 to communicate and update the chapter on events
- work with the gizborit to plan a successful fundraiser that chapter members can enjoy participating in as well
- help the mekasheret create a prospect list and recruit
- assist the katvanit in writing an article about 63
- work with orechets to create a chapter newsletter
- encourage board members to have committees
- host a board lti to teach board members new skills
- form a relationship with each board member to ensure success and a bond between the board
- be available 24/7 for help with anything

63, We're going places.
Let's take a road trip
