- One ISF program per chapter during the programming year
- Incorporate ISF into regional and chapter programming
- Regional yoga, zumba, or soul cycle class to raise money
- ISF Awareness/Fundraising Month, chapter who raises the most gets spirit points

Fundraising:

- Each chapter will have one chapter fundraiser every other month, or monthly if needed (bake sale, dinner night, car wash, etc)
- Make fundraising a key part of generating chapter funds

Counterparts:

- Create an online spreadsheet where chapter Gizborit must record their bank account balance each month.
- If a chapter's funds are not increasing regularly, I will contact their Gizborit and help them fix this.

My Sister B'nai Brith Girls,

We all have a dream, an aspiration that pushes us to work harder. We sit in class and daydream about it, or lay in bed at night imagining all of the possibilities. Our dreams are what pushes us to keep going, even when things take a turn for the worse. They are the light at the end of the tunnel. When I walked out of regional elections one year ago, my dream had finally become clear. With a love for designing merchandise, helping others, and staying organized, I knew that Gizborit was the position for me. And that is why I, Emily Ryan Blumberg, am so excited to share my dreams with you. If elected, I promise to put all of my energy into making NSR's finances more organized and making ISF and fundraising a key part of every chapter. I will make sure every chapter has the funds to host their "dream" program, without financial limitations. I want this not only for NSR BBG chapters, but for every chapter in the international order. This will be accomplished through extensive fundraising for ISF, allowing us to enjoy programming while making fellow BBG's dreams come true. Walt Disney once said "A dream is a wish your heart makes," and I hope to use all my heart and energy to make every BBG's dreams become a reality.

Submitted with undying love and devotion for dreams coming true, shuk, CLTC 8 2017, NSR #19, and my heart and home Yachad BBG #0340, I forever and always remain,
Emily Ryan Blumberg.
