Caucusing for the high and honorable position of North Florida Region's 12th Sh'lichah

Goals and Ideas:

Chapter counterparts:

- Contact chapter sh'lichim every week to check in
- Review all community service programs, social action programs, and Judaism related programs
- Chapters have at least one Israeli program, social action program, community service event, and havdalah/Shabbat/holidays program, per term
- Find different organizations throughout the region where chapters can volunteer involving their communities
- Help chapters find their niche in social action
- Compile a digital list of holidays throughout the year, their meaning, story, and how to involve their values in programs
- Make sure each chapter Calendar observes Shabbat

Personal goals:

- Create a region wide community service event and have all chapter sh'lichim plan it together
- Create a website/blog to put up the news reports, programs, database of organizations and more
- Create programs that each chapter sh'lichah can use
- Contact regional sh'lichim from other regions and find out what they do differently
- Hold a program involving our involvement in Israel's wellbeing while making sure to keep neutral on the stance of the government
- Keep members constantly updated on Israeli news
- Keep in contact with my international counterpart
- Coordinate a fantastic Kallah

Regional Board:

- Work consistently with my counterpart
- Be very cooperative
- Attend every meeting, regional event, and convention possible
- Create monthly Israeli news report videos with my AZA counterpart

Most importantly: Make sure that our Jewish experiences as a region are amazing and interesting!

My sister B'nai B'rith Girls, every single Jew has a different relationship with their Jewish identity. We as B'nai B'rith Girls are carrying on the culture and pride of the Jewish people, no matter how observant we are. Each girl will have different struggles in finding their respective Judaism and I would like to help you on your way to be comfortable with your Judaism. Not every Jewish girl has the wonderful opportunity to participate in a program like BBYO. With this in mind we need to embrace those ancient values our ancestors bestowed upon us and continue in our journey to be great young Jews. None of us want to forget our Judaism. Lets create amazing Jewish memories together that will keep us excited to pass down tradition to our children and their children.

Submitted with undying love for each and everyone of you, I remain

A damn proud B'nai B'rith Girl
