I, Julia Michelle Arnowitz, am caucused for the high and honorable position of your 58th
Regional S'ganit

My Sister B'nai B'rith Girls,

A forest is never just one tree, it takes hundreds of them to be grown before we can finally call it a forest. This is how I picture programming, a forest of trees that will never stop flourishing. Imagine each seed as its own program, awaiting soil, water, and sunlight to blossom. We as BBG's are each of those crucial components of a program's growth and success. Over the last four years of my BBYO journey I have come to realize that programming is one of my biggest passions. However, I have also learned that there is no perfect program and now is the time to create a new and unique kind of soil that will allow our forest to be successful. Just as it takes time for trees to become a forest, we will also need patience to allow our programs to thrive, and I am confident it is my turn to step in and help our forest grow until it reaches our bright blue sky.

Submitted with undying love and dedication to planting a beautiful forest,

I forever Remain,
Julia Michelle Arnowitz

Branching out

Strengthen each trunk: Encourage counterparts to look to other chapters and regions for inspiration and new ideas

- Bring the IC chapter programming showcase to a regional level by having chapters submit their most successful program
- Create a useful, functional and up-to-date CVR program bank with the Regional S'gan
- Work with Regional Sh'lichim to make a Judaic Programming bank and services bank
- Hold monthly calls so that s'ganim can share their programs with each other as well as discuss successes and failures

G Programming leaves

Water the tree: Blend folds together so that programs don't look forced

- Encourage all counterparts to include at least 3/6 different leaves so that programs will tend to multiple interests of current members, MITs, and prospects of that specific chapter
- Bring back the "leaf of the month" system that stays specifically between the s'ganim
- Work diligently with counterparts to make sure that all prospects, MITs, and current members are aware of all of the leaves and their purpose
- Act with regional MIT Mom to enhance the sisterhood fold

"Here comes the sun" - The Beatles

Finding our roots

using new Soil: The roots of a tree are crucial, in order for it to grow successfully you must use the right soil

- Work diligently with counterparts to make sure their original vision can be executed to the best of its ability
- Make sure advisors are aware of the work their chapter is doing and that they are offering positive encouragement and suggestions
- Make counterparts aware if their program is not written out to its fullest potential

Creating A Forest

Plant assorted seeds: Create diverse and successful steering committees

- Create a system for counterparts to help them reach out to potential steerers and offer an incentive to those that do apply
- Create steering committees that will be able to put together an amazing experience for both members and MITs
- Work with the social committee to make sure that icebreakers will be appealing to MITs and members

Let Every Tree Blossom

Continue to Flourish: There is no perfect tree and there is always room for growth

- By studying each tree thoroughly and having a call with my counterparts to discuss specifics, together we will water the tree and help it grow to its fullest potential
- Push for non board members to coordinate and lead programs
- Make sure my counterparts know that I am here to help them by forming a strong connection with them at B'yachad/RLTI
- Evaluate each tree and make sure it is stronger than taller than the previous one
