

I, Amelia Danielle Fichandler am caucused for the high and honorable role of CVR BBG's 64th Regional Aym Ha'Chaverot

My sibling BBGS,

No matter how you ended up here in this incredible sisterhood, we all captured our own first moments.

CVR, If elected, I promise to be not only a friend to those walking in the doors but to also be a mentor and build the future leaders of CVR. With flash on, I am insistent to be an eternal light to all BBG's through their own scroll of experiences. Like a collage, no same 2 pictures have the same moment captured within; they all have their unique aspects like each and every one of you BBG's, and that's the beauty of BBG.

Submitted with undying love and dedication to Achva BBG #124, and CVR #17, I forever remain Amelia Danielle Fichandler, a damn proud candidate for your 64th regional MIT Mom.

Overall Goals

- Grow Big/Little to a full year program

-Implement new member swag packs and welcome merch

-Work to implement senior gifts and experiences

- Plan a CVR BBG Tradition overnight

-Hold a kickoff parent/MIT event for those joining

-Teach Morah's & Siganim the programming funnel

-Work with Mazkirah to implement Tradition Tuesdays and Welcome Wednesdays

- Create Morim bonding (especially near mother's day!)

-Hold and informational night about Summer programs & create incentives along with a 1 on 1 talk with past attendee

-Create consistent MIT chair positions

-Make a region wide list on incentives for prospects attending programs and regional events

-Create a welcome back event for those who are inactive

-Implement a list of parents' emails of prospects for outreach

-When a BBG goes to their first convention, create an “all about BBG book” to give them

-Provide everyone in CVR a valid calling or texting script for events when texting/calling prospects or new members

-Work with the hosting, welcome wagon and big/little committee to create values and experiences that will ensure all BBG's at convention are welcome.
