Aschner, Sarah Tobyn Dolgoy, Liane Moneta, Kevin Meyer Elias, Rachel Bordenstien, Shana Weiner and Lisa Krystol Forenstien.

Moreover, what BBG has taught me above all is this:
The Choices you make are the Chances you take.

I AM DAMN PROUD TO BE A B'NAI B'RITH GIRL.

Goals and Ideas for the office of International Mazkirah:

1. To give the B'nai B'rith Girls all I have got to give by making

Communication, Personalization, Fund-raising and ILTC the main points of focus for the 98-99 programming year

COMMUNICATION

- ~ Communicating with all Council, Regional and District Mazkirot, Gizboriot, Orechot, Safraniot and Katvaniot and all combinations of those offices monthly and with the International Board and my AZA Co
- ~ Separate releases for Each Office
- ~ Helping the Web Site Chairwoman expand the BBG Web site
- ~ Working with the Bridge-The-Gap Chairwoman on Internationalization in the Order and having her stress the need to bring the International order down to the Chapters
- ~ Work on bringing BBG back to the CHAPTERS and emphasizing the importance there on Communication

International Leadership Training Conference 1999

- ~ Personally calling Perspectives
- ~ Working to make ILTC an INTERNATIONAL summer program by promoting it more in the districts
- ~ Broadening ILTC's focus not just for BBYO leadership but applicable leadership lessons for Community and Judaic leadership roles
- ~ Creating a ILTC Promotion hand book for all BBG's
- ~ Making a ILTC Perspectives book, where BBG's considering ILTC can get a glimpse at what ILTC is like
- ~ Creating an ILTC Committee made up of past participants to evaluate and promote ILTC 1999

Personalization

- ~ Personal letters with every release
- ~ Setting up an E-mail communication system for my counterparts
- ~ Setting up weekly "Office Hours" That will be time where I am devoted exclusively to helping Counterparts and any BBG

Fund-raising

- ~ Create an ISF allocations Committee to ensure that BBG is actively engaged in deciding where her monies will go
- ~ Continue and Expand March Money Madness
- ~ Ensure, by the end of my term, every BBG can plan and execute a fund-raise. I will do this by creating a fund-raising hand book for all BBG's
- ~ Ensure, through working with my Gizborit counterparts that EVERY Council, Regional and District fund-raises for itself in a CSF-RSF-DSF Service Fund.
