- Work with the N'siot to create personal relationships and successful chapter events.
- Have N'siot bonding in the beginning and end of the year.
- Have bi-monthly N'siot meetings.
- Send out weekly emails to the N'siot to keep them updated with everything going on in NSR.
- Have a meeting every month to focus on a fold of BBG.

- Attend as many chapter and board meetings as possible.
- Encourage more meetings with brother and sister chapters.
- Work well with the 59th regional board to create a successful year with great programs.
- Send out surveys after meetings for feedback.

- Work with regional and chapter Gizborit to help each chapter have at least one fundraiser for their Stand-Up cause.
- Focus on recruiting and retaining younger members since they are the future of BBYO.
- Help chapters make items for shuk.

- Make every BBG feel important and welcome.
- Answer all emails and texts within 24 hours.
- Ensure no chapter folds.
- Promote summer programs.

- Create a monthly calendar for each chapter and stick to it to accomplish goals.
- Take votes to see what type of meetings the chapter members prefer (serious, crafts, etc.)
- Utilize the BBYO program bank to help brainstorm for meetings.
- Create a "sister N'siah" for N'siot to talk to and coordinate programs with, and create closer relationships.

My Sister B'nai Brith Girls,

There are 52 cards in a deck, 4 different suits of cards, and endless combinations. The same goes for BBYO – in NSR BBG alone there are 13 different chapters, over 100 girls with different interests, but all with the common goal of fulfilling the folds of BBG: Jewish heritage, recreation, community service, social action, creativity and sisterhood.

But how do we do this? We don't always get dealt the perfect hand, but we can work with what we have to create a winning hand. This winning hand will include more fun and creative programs that appeal to the likes of the members, expanding our social circle of sisters, and pushing past the boundaries that have been set in the past... So, are you ready to go all-in and make this programming year the most successful and incredible year yet?

Submitted with undying love and devotion for working with the deck you're given, new friendships, CLTC 4 2016, NSR#19, and my heart and home L'Chaim BBG #2148, I forever and always remain

Halle Brooke Nahoum.
