

My Sister Bnai Brith Girls;

When I think of Chaverot, I think of a garden, I see flowers with potential to grow and seed their knowledge off to other flowers, I see seeds who are still learning, taking in knowledge and starting to grow into little buds, each seed, blossom and flower is in the grand garden of Chaverot, but most importantly BBG. When we were new in BBYO we knew absolutely nothing, other than the fact that we met every Wednesday, as time progressed we learnt a lot and our knowledge blossomed, so did we. Everyone in this room is growing into a flower. Every new member is a seed that will eventually grow into a flower in the Bnai Brith Girls Garden.

I remain,

Hannah Aviv

PLANTING JEWISH HERITAGE IN THE YOUNG MINDS OF THE FUTURE

My Morah Promise:

I promise that by the end of the programming year I will have successfully helped Chaverot grow into a larger and stronger chapter. I will educate all MITs on BBG history to ensure the girls wear their chapter pins with pride.

Nobody should feel as if they don't belong, BBG is the perfect place for all Jewish girls to create long lasting friendships and I will ensure that all new members will fit in perfectly to Chaverot to BBG and to BBYO
