

"I'm not throwing away my shot"

-Hamilton

My Sister B'nai B'rith Girls:

Being a part of Achshav BBG #304 has made me realize what we can accomplish as a group of driven, talented, and passionate sisters. If we set high goals for ourselves, there is no telling how successful we can become. Continuing the pattern of having strong leaders that will further our strong fundraising momentum by constantly implementing new goals and ideas will help us soar to new heights (just like these skyscrapers). By increasing chapter and council participation in the planning and fundraising process, and always having the initiative to cultivate high-reaching, impactful concepts, a door will be opened to start a new era in bbyo treasury. I want to hear your voice, because the key to a powerful system is mutual excitement and interest, with the goal of getting our name out there. If we refuse to "throw away our shot," we will be able to up our game in terms of outreach, participation, enthusiasm, and gaining needed funds, all which will result in a game changing Spring term.

Submitted with undying love for pandas, purple & black & white, mac & cheese, dirty dancing, big butts, and all my sisters, I forever remain,

Josie M. Stein
