ALIAH BBG

AYM-HA CHAVEROT

My sister B'nai B'rith Girls,

We are held back by our own limitations. We are so afraid to fall short of our goals that we lower them and settle for the safe goal that we know we can reach. But if we never push ourselves past the point of comfortability and safety, how can we ever progress?

This year, I want to push past that point and prove that with hard work, dedication, and passion, anything is possible.

We must embrace challenge and create the mentality that it is better to have tried and failed than to have never tried at all. We must be the catalysts- the ones who create this kind of an organization because if we do not, then who will? It is up to us, my sister B'nai B'rith Girls, to be the ones to make a change. It is up to us to be the ones to make our mark on this organization. It won't be easy, but nothing that is worth anything comes easily.

Respectfully submitted with undying love for our potential this year as a movement, I remain
