"Like, Comment, and Subscribe" (Recruitment)

- 👍 Work with BBGs from various schools in GHC and SCC to recruit high schoolers to Lonestar by inviting prospects in person
- 👍 Collaborate with chapter Mekashrim to set and achieve recruitment goals
- 👍 Write hand-written invitations or letters to invite prospects to events or get them interested in BBYO
- 👍 Reach out to synagogues and Jewish Summer Camps to make prospect lists
- 👍 Consistently reach out to prospects and keep track of who reached out to them and the response

"On YouTube, women are not just users; they're creators. They're learning about having a voice."

-Susan Wojcicki

Collabs (Counterparts)

- 👍 Stay in constant communication with my chapter counterparts and my AZA counterpart
- 👍 Always be available to talk and help with programming, recruitment, and anything they might need
- 👍 Monthly zoom calls and emails

A Green Social Blade (MRIHA)

- 👍 Educate counterparts and chapters about MRIHA so that they can recruit more effectively
- 👍 Invite high school prospects to specific chapter events with a member to "shadow" under
- 👍 Retain a google doc w/ prospects and their information

Playlist Live (Taste of BBYO events)

- 👍 Promote events by providing incentives like free BBYO swag
- 👍 Provide rides to prospects by finding willing BBGs to drive them
- 👍 Fun and interesting events
 - 👍 Pool Party
 - 👍 Color Wars/ Field Day w/ food trucks
 - 👍 Carnival with each chapter in charge of a booth

RACHEL DANIELLE LEVINE,

AN ASPIRING CANDIDATE FOR YOUR 5TH REGIONAL MEKASHERET

My Sister B'nai B'rith Girls,

Why did you come here? Maybe you got a call or text from me or another member of the MRIHA team. Maybe you saw a post on social media or you saw an email and thought it looked fun. Why did we join BBYO? I came to make new Jewish friends that I couldn't find at school, but maybe you wanted to explore your Jewish identity or feel part of something bigger than yourself. BBYO has given me the opportunity to lead, create, and inspire. Susan Wojcicki, the current CEO of Youtube was quoted as saying, "On YouTube, women are not just users; they're creators. They're learning about having a voice." And that is what BBYO does for us. Every BBG is given the opportunity to contribute and impact their chapter, our region, and the international order.

Respectfully submitted with undying love for CLTC 5 2018, Tikvah BBG #2473, Tana pre TanaCon, the subscribe button, the vlog squad, and each and every one of you,

I forever remain,

Rachel Danielle Levine, a damn proud candidate for your 5th regional Mekasheret
