Goals and Ideas for the Term

✧ Strengthening Relationships ✧

AS MOREH, I WILL...

- Communicate with Temple Beth Shalom (and possibly Chabad) about potential eighth grade members for recruitment
- Assist and in turn gain assistance with recruitment for/from Aliah BBG
- Have close personal relationships with AITs, encourage AITs to lead programs or possibly work in chapter committees
- Give members surveys and input as to what they want to see the chapter do, and work with the board to make it happen, allowing more than just the board to “run” the chapter
- Have guaranteed solid communication with fellow board members, counterparts, and all Alephs and BBGs in general
- Bring back and reincorporate chapter and AZA traditions
 - Shirtless Good and Welfares (more common)
 - Teaching and singing more chapter songs (“Hearts Once Hearts Twice”, “Up You Men”)
- Get the interest of members of other youth groups, perhaps even by means of myself attending their events in return all for the sake of our chapter’s growth (though it’s not a competition!)
- Have ALL Alephs in Heart familiar with the Five Folds and Seven Cardinal Principles via more sleepovers dedicated to this (and having AIT sleepovers and events as well)
- Earn the Tree of Life Award
- Work with S’gan and Mazkir to ensure all programs are appealing and have term schedule available to all members so they know what to expect
- Introduce “Meet Our Brothers” Program, in which all members individually discuss their passions and create better acquaintance with each other

✧ Aiming High ✧

AS MOREH, I AIM TO...

- Recruit 15+ Alephs In Training by the end of the term
- Get 10+ Alephs in Training to AIT/MIT 2015
- Educate the chapter on recruitment skills and how to keep new members coming and old members interested
- Gain a brother chapter from another region/country
- Turn at least one former high school member into an active member
- Have more chapter (Five Fold?) Sleepovers if possible
- Get at least three Alephs to go to CLTC
- Utilize BBYO Connect and KIO Rush through events such as movie nights and possibly collaborating with any of the local synagogues
- Break down chapter social barriers through more good and welfare opportunities, and for members to find more things in common with each other through our programs to increase the sense of Fraternity
- End the term with a respectful, trusting chapter with a strong bond between us brothers

Fraternity(noun)- the state or feeling of friendship and mutual support within a group

My brothers,

Many a time I have heard “BBYO isn’t for everyone” or “I know him, and he’ll never join” and many more excuses such as these. While we are labeled as a youth group, I truly believe there is more to AZA than that, and BBYO as a whole. There are no “lost causes”. BBYO is for everyone, but not everyone makes it a home for everyone else. This I aim to change. But I need your help. Recruitment requires assistance. Sometimes, a prospect just needs a push from someone that they identify with better or are more trusting in. If you elect me as Moreh, I promise you will have made the right choice. I am very empathetic. I can be very skilled in persuasion. I am independent, but willing to hear all ideas and finding a happy medium if needed. I LOVE bringing people into our chapter. But most important of all, I have passion. I know myself and my limits, and I know I can be the best Moreh possible. Make it a great term or not, the choice is yours. Fraternally submitted with undying love for: Heart of Ohio AZA #55, KIO #27, CLTC 6 2014, Cheirut AZA #171, and the future of our chapter, I forever remain

Let’s make this the best damn term ever.
