Dear the Beautiful BBGs of Rocky Mountain Region #25,

An "adventure" means something different for everyone. It could be the first day of high school for the nervous freshman, or receiving a flu shot for the squirmy teen. It could be taking a difficult test for the average student, or stepping into your first meetings as a BBG.

BBYO, for me, has been an adventure in every way possible.

Whether it be joining a small chapter where I knew practically no one, serving on my chapter board, flying off to the faraway town of Mukwanago Wisconsin for CLTC 1 2014, to here, presenting my passion in front of a group of girls I am proud to call sisters, every single moment of BBG has been filled with excitement, action, and ADVENTURE. Each and every one of you girls contributed to my dedication to the order. You provided me a treasure map, a compass, and a boat, and helped me with each and every stroke on the way. I couldn't be more thankful for everything you have done for me. Because of this, it's my turn to lead you on your next adventure: finding your Judaism. Judaism is an essential part of what truly makes you the BBG you are. Without Judaism, we wouldn't have BBG, and would not be sitting here after one of the best conventions of our BBYO lives, listening to and absorbing all of the passion coming from the many qualified candidates. Let me be your compass, your treasure map, even your GPS, to help YOU find your Judaism. Let us find where X marks the spot and help you embrace what it truly means to be Jewish. Let me help you on your BBG journey, just as you did mine.

Let's go on adventure!

Submitted with undying love for each and every one of you,
I remain your DAMN proud candidate for the High and Honorable position of RMR's 60th Regional Yehudiah,
Nicci Chaya Mowszowski
