Welcome to

Lets

With Our

Recruitment Strategies

- Speak at hebrew schools and tell them about BBYO
- Work with the chapter to create posters and flyers for social media and schools
- Create incentives for current members to bring new prospects
- Create little cards for members to keep with them to give out
- Create a chapter recruitment video
- Have a parent-teen event to inform parents and teens

M.I.Ts and Prospects

- Create M.I.T based programs
- Have fun M.I.T classes which can include activities
- Make a M.I.T booklet to give out to everyone
- Keep in constant connection with M.I.Ts and prospects

- Reach out to inactive members to check in and invite them to fun events
- Create special bbg programs to strengthen sisterhood in our chapter
- Plan a successful induction
- Work with the sunshine girl(s) to plan a special event for our seniors
- Teach cheers and dances for conventions during meetings

My Sister B'nai B'rith Girls,

Together. Every meeting, every program, every laugh, every joke, we do it together. Ever since I became a BBG and a member of this chapter, I have felt a sense of togetherness. I want to spread that togetherness to as many people as I can. By recruiting new prospects and M.I.Ts, we can show how much meaning and fun bbyo is. The world of bbg is a special one, and as Morah, I plan to spread that fun around and create a closer bond in our amazing chapter.

Submitted with undying love for Disney Channel, the botc babes group chat, PWR #44, and Kochavim BBG #2513, I remain,

Zoë Faith Green

Your candidate for Morah and a damn proud BBG
