

Aleph Ross Stuart Falkenstein

Aspiring for the high and honorable position of your 87th Council Aleph Moreh

“You can only help the world by helping the people next to you.” - Quincy “Schoolboy Q” Hanley

Aleph Godol, my brother Alephs, why do I strive to become THE 87th Atlanta Council Aleph Moreh? I seek this position for the Jewish men who have not yet discovered all that AZA has to offer them. The Aleph Zadik Aleph has not only given me a place to call home, but the greatest brothers I could ever ask for in that house. Without this organization I would be lost, and believe me, there are many other manly men out there just like you who have not been found. It is our duty that we go out and search for them. Let's be the guides to lead each and every Aleph home. Each day, more and more Jewish teens lose touch with this sacred religion, and AZA is their chance to reconnect. Atlanta Council is undoubtedly one of the strongest Councils in the entire order, but ask yourself, how can we be the best? We can be even better with great programs, leaders, and most importantly, membership. I cannot promise perfection, but I can always guarantee improvement. It is time to take Atlanta Council AZA to greater heights, and I am the Aleph who can do it. Fraternally Submitted with an undying love for Avitz AZA #2383-2490-2490-2383, Atlanta Council, and the Grand Order of the Aleph Zadik Aleph I proudly remain Aleph

The future depends on what we do in the present

Recruitment and Retention

- What is the purpose of this organization without the brothers that sit next to you at this very moment? Recruitment and retention are the two key factors that contribute to building AZA. It is my promise that I will help any chapter that is struggling to recruit members. Not only will I serve as Council Moreh, but I will also serve as a secondary Chapter Moreh. If any of my counterparts have an issue of any sort recruiting or retaining, I ensure that I will help resolve the problem every single time. From giving advice, to personally speaking with potential members, I am prepared to go the extra mile to help us thrive.

Re-Education

- Trying to focus a program around all of the folds is without a doubt complicated. Most programs completely disregard education, which teaches the history of the Aleph Zadik Aleph. I would like to work with my counterparts to plan a Council-Wide event focused around the history of AZA. I will also encourage all chapters to teach our history regularly, but carefully.

Goals:

- Work with Council Godol to implement a Council Sopher as the manager of the Atlanta Council Website
- I want to send the most Alephs Atlanta Council has ever seen go to Summer Experience Programs
This applies especially to CLTC
- I will ensure that New Member Convention 2015 and “Music Midtown” are not on the same weekend, to guarantee that we have maximum AIT attendance
- Make the morim team not just co-workers, but friends through unlimited, comfortable communication and several team bonding events such as sleepovers, dinner, hangouts, etc.
- Have a minimum of 3 AITS and 12 Alephs from each chapter attend every Atlanta Council Convention
- Help send a minimum of 15 AITS to IC 2016 Baltimore
- Have a higher Aleph to BBG Attendance Ratio at ALL Council events

Other Qualifications:

- Weber JV Basketball Captain 2013-14
- 2013-14 Student Ambassador for the Weber School
- Weber Cheerleading “Purim” Puff” Captain 2014
- Weber Ambassador for International BBYO members
- Peer-elected Weber School Color War Captain 2013
