Life is what you make of it. If you don't live every moment to the fullest, what's the point of living? As you have probably heard from many people in this room, including myself, BBG moments create memories of a life time that are truly worth living for. The moments we remember are the moments we live for. I will help you make your BBG moments last a lifetime.

With so much undying love for MITS, Seniors, Kulanu BBG #419, and everyone who has made my BBG moments worth living, I will forever remain,

Lainie Alyse Rotenberg
