My Brother Alephs,

My time in Fisher has meant so much to me. At my first event, I didn't know anyone, being only an 8th grader. As soon as I walked in, I was immediately welcomed by everyone, and I felt right at home. I remember that program brought me closer to all of you and I hope this year I can create events that will bring everyone together. If elected, I will plan amazing programs to make our brotherhood even stronger, and I know this programming year will be one you will never forget.

I Forever Remain,

Aleph Benjamin Max Cohon

The Five Programming Folds

Social

Axe Throwing - Have you ever thought about what it would be like to throw an axe? Detroit Axe offers cheap axe-throwing lessons, and they are also a restaurant! Go downtown, throw axes, and have a

Athletic

March Madness Party - Exactly what it sound like. Cheer on your favorite college in March Madness! Snacks, brotherhood and basketball!

Education

Jeopardy - The Chapter Board members each have their own station and all AIT's go around to the stations. The Board member talks about what they do for the chapter. After, the AIT's play a short game of Jeopardy to show their new knowledge.

Social Action/Community Service

Stock the Shelves - Go to Yad Ezra or another kosher food bank and help stock the shelves there. After, help out with distribution of food.

Judaic

Exodus - The chapter splits into two groups, and have to get to a designated location without getting caught by an alumni or advisor! Whoever gets there first wins! This will be a fun Judaic program with a reflection on the story of the Exodus from Egypt at the end.
