Goals

- Plan at least one event per month throughout the term
- Work with the S'ganim of other chapters to plan an event with at least 2 AZA chapters and at least 2 BBG chapters by the end of the term
- Implement a system in which younger alephs must oversee the event planning process, working alongside older alephs to learn the basics of planning an event
- Set aside an entire month for younger members to plan and host Friday night events with older members
- Work with the AZAA chair to plan a Fantasy Football Draft/Pool Party RCP
- Pass my knowledge down to younger alephs

Mission Statement

The honorable position of S'gan comes with a great deal of responsibility in the legacy of our highly respected chapter, Ema Shelcha AZA #2495. It is essential that a growing and thriving chapter such as ours reaches its maximum potential in event planning and execution in the upcoming term. My priority is to serve the chapter in reaching our goals and continuing to prevail as one of the most respected chapters in the Pacific Western Region. When the Class of 2015 graduates, the youth of the chapter must be left with the essential knowledge of event planning. Every single Aleph's voice will be heard and Ema Shelcha will exceed its limits.
