Proud Candidate for your 67th International N'siah

Samantha Michelle Ulick

Samantha
I remain,

Submitted with undying love and dedication to the International Order of the B'nai B'rith Girls, accomplish more than ever during their 67th year.

What do you believe in? What do you stand for? After all, B'nai B'rith Girls is OUR MOVEMENT. Right now is OUR MOMENT to evaluate where we are as an organization and how we will move forward. After 66 years of foundation, sisterhood, leadership, advocacy, involvement, and expansion we need to realize the power and potential we have to affect change and show the WORLD that the B'nai B'rith Girls are ready to accomplish more than ever during their 67th year.

My sister B'nai B'rith Girls,

Samantha Michelle Ulick

~CANDIDATE FOR YOUR 67TH INTERNATIONAL N'SIAH~

"The roots of true achievement lie in the will to become the best that you can become."

Be a visionary...

INTERNATIONAL BOARD COUNTERPARTS:

- Weekly conference call to create a weekly plan with individual follow-up calls
- Travel update e-mails to guide their efforts for the counterparts I am visiting
- Oversee the collection of counterpart resources to be available on dashboard
- Help each board member to redefine their responsibilities as a top leader of the world's largest pluralistic Jewish youth movement
- Weekly e-mails to R/C N'siot to ensure information and updates are shared
- Create network of like-regions/councils for N'siot to share best practices
- Create monthly releases on how to become involved in different International initiatives
- Hold monthly conference calls to follow up with different monthly focuses
- Always be an open resource and available to communicate
- Keep track of all of my counterparts' successes to showcase them to the International Order
- Utilize XX's Task Forces designed to specialize in specific areas of international development

GLOBALIZATION:

- Help North American BBYOers realize the power they have to empower overseas teens
- Create fundraising goals for each R/C to reach to support the expansion of global communities
- Utilize Global Ambassadors as tools to assist global communities in advancing programmatic development
- Spend visits making connections with teens and staff, assisting in development, and advocating for their participation in domestic programs

REPRESENTING BBG:

- Always be a source of motivation and inspiration
- Set high standards in order to encourage the continuation of building our movement
- Be a representative of my constituency to BBYO's professional staff
- Assist in the development of improved overseas programs that reflect our strong international roots
- Put all of my energy into transforming B'nai B'rith Girls into an unstoppable movement

TRAVELING:

- Create a travel schedule at the beginning of August and February based on counterpart requests
- Communicate with staff, R/C presidents and their boards about how to make each visit worthwhile
- Meet with R/C boards, chapter presidents, and staff to assist in whichever way has been requested
- Serve as a programming resource and a role model while visiting at conventions
- Post information and updates from my travels on BBYO's Keeping PACE blog
- Distribute regional reports to appropriate staff promptly after each visit

... Empower yourself to grow.
